Mr (late) 1st member sent me the papers on 25th June after send a telegram to Mr Kelly to report himself at my office before 1st July. I at once pointed out to him that the appointment required the sanction of the Govt of India. He then sent the 2nd telegram saying that his appointment was subject to the sanction of the Govt of India. This was sent "express" & Mr Kelly got it before he left Bangalore. Strictly speaking Mr Kelly can claim salary only from 7th July, but if he are so pleased being in view the special circumstances he given pay for 1st July (Sunday)

Sir, I think we may do as suggested. As he left Bangalore on the 1st July & left Madras on the 2nd July he may be given pay only upto 2nd July (Sunday) 1923
